THE STAR THEATRE.

The program presented for this week at Astoria's popular theatre is an excellent one. The aim of the management is to have talent that will not only keep up the good reputation already established but to add to it.

J. B. King, the tramp equilibrist, does a very pleasing act in light and heavy balancing that is much appreciated.

Frank Dayton grows better, as he grows older, and has established himself as a favorite at this house. His song this week is a pretty one and is rendered in his own good style.

Ethel Viola, monologist and vocalist, sings well and tells a few stories that cause a laugh.

Jim Rowe, the eccentric comedian, does a good turn and will win.

Higgins & Lamar are a team of young men who keep their audience laughing from the time they appear on the stage until the next change comes after refusing encores twice. Their burlesque dancing match wins the audience, and Mr. Higgins, who by the way, is an excellent dancer, although Lamar is not far behind, by his burlesque antics wins the plaudits of his partner's pseudo judges.

Billy Gumbly, the cool shouter, does a fine buck and wing dance and invariably gains an encore.

One of the neatest musical acts ever produced in Astoria is that of Davy & Everson. Neatly costumed, with good voices, and pleasing ways, they present to their audience a fine act. The saxophone duet was as pretty a thing as one would wish to hear.

Owing to the length of the program but one moving picture is shown, and that is worth a dozen, as it is full of fun all through.

WATERFRONT ITEMS

The British ship Rajore, 100 days from London, and loaded with a cargo of cement was brought into harbor yesterday. The Rajore was originally bound for San Francisco, but was spoken off that port 22 days ago and ordered to proceed to Portland to unload.

The steam schooner Della, Captain Jones, hailing from Nestucca, arrived yesterday with a cargo of country produce. The Della will leave today with a general cargo.

The French bark Genevieve Molinos, loaded with grain for Europe, was towed down from Portland yesterday by the steamer Harvest Queen.

The Terje Viken will move from the Tongue Point Lumber Company's mill today and finish taking on her cargo at Portland.

The steamer Breakwater arrived from Coos Bay yesterday and will leave for the coast ports Thursday.

The City of Panama passed out of harbor yesterday morning, bound for San Francisco and way ports.

The British steamer Bramley, cleared for Australia with a cargo of lumber, passed across the bar yesterday.

WILL NOT POSPONE WEDDING.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 22.—Denial is made today of the report that the marriage of Miss Gladys Vanderbilt and Count Szechenyi, on December 4 next, would be postponed on account of the Count's illness.

TELEGRAPHERS RETURN TO WORK.

OMAHA, Oct. 22.—Three striking telegraphers including the secretary and treasurer of the local union returned to work today. Two returned yesterday.

NEW TO-DAY.

Notice.

Cushing Post No. 14, G. A. R., will hold a social at G. A. R. Hall, Wednesday, October 23, at 8:30, and wish the Relief Corps and Ladies of the G. A. R. to attend the entertainment by request of Post V. C., O. F. Morton.

Christmas Excursions.

It is not too early to make your steamer reservations if you are going to spend Christmas in the Old Country.

The Canadian Pacific gives you the very best service by rail and steamer and their rates are the lowest.

For sailing dates and full particulars, call on James Finlayson, agent, Astoria.

Notice.

Heating stoves and ranges, the best and the cheapest. Hildebrand & Gor.

Notice.

We have silver side and steelhead netting, leaded lead lines, cotton twine and rope, Plymouth Manila rope, oil clothing and, rubber boots and everything for fishermen. T. J. Carney & Co.

Oliver typewriters and automatic stenographers at A. R. Cyrus, 424 Commercial street. tf.

The Tyler.

The Tyler is still doing business at the old stand, Sixth and Bond streets. Clarence Tyler makes his customers feel at home and as a result his business is improving. The quality of the goods he serves cannot be excelled and the neatness of the place and the good order prevailing, makes The Tyler a popular resort. When you are in that neighborhood drop in and satisfy yourself.

The Place To Dine.

Where shall we dine? There should be no question about that. If you have no appetite, but feel that you should dine, drop into the Palace and, if you meet Arthur Smith, ask him to prescribe for you. He'll do it, by laying something tempting before you, and while he does not wish to interfere with physicians, prescribing for dyspepsia, he is in the business to cater to men's stomachs. Try him once and then you will always dine at the Palace.
